

OSCAR MICHELEN is a partner in the firm of Sandback, Birnbaum & Michelen, with offices in Mineola and Manhattan. He concentrates his practice in the areas of civil, personal injury and criminal defense litigation. He founded The Law Squad in 2002.

A 1985 magna cum laude graduate of New York Law School, Mr. Michelen now teaches there as an adjunct professor of law. After law school, Mr. Michelen rose to the position of Senior Trial Attorney for the City of New York defending the City in numerous multi-million dollar, high profile lawsuits.

He left that prestigious position to join his current firm where he became a partner in 1995. In his private practice, Mr. Michelen and his firm regularly represent parents and teenagers on all of the issues raised at The Law Squad seminars. Because of his expertise and success in the legal field, he often appears on national and local television and print media which are either covering his cases or in need of a legal expert to discuss a variety of legal issues.

Mr. Michelen is the host of "The Law Squad" television program which airs weekly on North Hempstead Public Television on channel 18 on the Cablevision Network. He resides in Albertson, New York with his wife and three sons.
